On April 28, 2023, KUTIC hosted an invited talk featuring Prof. Dinesh Goyal, a distinguished Professor from the Thapar Institute of Engineering & Technology. The event was specifically organized for the students of IIHS (Institute of Integrated and Honors Studies) at Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra.

The session was presided over by Dr. Sanjeev Gupta, the Principal of IIHS, Kurukshetra University. Prof. Goyal, drawing from his extensive experience in the field of biotechnology, shared valuable insights and knowledge with the eager audience. He discussed his involvement in various biotechnology projects and provided valuable glimpses into the challenges and achievements he encountered throughout his career.

Moreover, Prof. Goyal also shed light on the inspiring journeys of students who had the privilege of being incubated at their dedicated incubation center, offering a glimpse into the exciting world of biotechnology innovation and entrepreneurship.
