

Invited talk on “Technology unlocking the w’s to facilitate digital transformation from businesses and governance” by Mr. Nikhil Kumar, President-Geospatial at MapmyIndia, Gurgaon on 13th Dec 2022

Invited talk on “Technology unlocking the w’s to facilitate digital transformation from businesses and governance” was organised by the Department of Geology and Electronics Science Department in collaboration with KUTIC, Kurukshetra University Kurukshetra for the students and research scholars of these departments. Total of 93 students in addition to the faculty members of both the departments participated in this event.

The speaker of the talk was Nikhil Kumar (President-Geospatial at MapmyIndia, Gurgaon). He talked about the innovation flow and the type of innovation required for geospatial mapping. He also emphasised on highly interdisciplinary approach of the domain Professor Anil Vohra, Dean of Colleges was the Chief Guest of this event.

